INDEX OF SUBJECTS

Abortion, extra-uterine pregnancy with attempted, 500
Abscess, pregnancy complicated by pelvic, 48
Acardiacus amorphus in the human subject, 384
Achondroplasia, Cæsarean Section twice performed on patient suffering from, 57
Address, of president of Edinburgh Society, 94
Of president of British Gynæcological Society, valedictory, 192
Inaugural, 298
Albuminuria in pregnancy, two cases of, 195
Amenorrhœa, primary, with pyosalpinx, 500
Anastomosis, improved method of uretero-vesical, 286
Anatomy of the pregnant tube, 419, 590
Anchorage of round ligament for posterior displacement of uterus, intra-mural extra-peritoneal, 363
Aorta, spontaneous rupture of, post-mortem Cæsarean section, 356
Appendages in uterine fibromata, 362, 575
Ascites, fœtal, 295
Asphyxia neonatorum from congenital atresia of the larynx, 60
Atresia of larynx, asphyxia neonatorum from, 60
Of vaginæ, true nature of hæmatosalpinx with, 577

Basiotripsy on after-coming head separated from body, 354
Baths in pregnancy and parturition, usefulness of, 47
Bipeds, necessity of menstruation in, 274
Bossi's dilator, rapid dilatation of cervix effected by, 95, 161
Forcible dilatation of cervix by, 160
Method, is it a real advance in obstetric surgery? 468
British Gynæcological Society, 86, 191, 297, 396, 496, 592
Inaugural address, 298
Breast, congenital absence of left, 498
Breasts and genitals, connection between, 511

Cæsarean section, twice performed on patient suffering from achondroplasia, 57
Post-mortem, child saved, 59, 356
For labour obstructed by ovarian dermoid, 93
Repeated in same woman, 269
For uncontrollable vomiting in pregnancy, 559
Vaginal, for eclampsia, 562
Calculus, ureteral, weighing 44 grammes, 488
Cancer, lymph glands in uterine, 169
Electro-thermic hysterectomy for, 277
Of Fallopian tube, primary, 480
Of cervix, at fifth month, 95
Of cervix uteri, early, 193
Of cervix, treatment by X-rays, 576
Of uterus, use of electric cautery clamp in, 277
Observations on glands in seven cases of, 477
Carcinoma cervicis uteri, importance of more radical operation on, 279
Of Fallopian tube, 172
Of cervix at term, 302
Of rectum, complicating pregnancy, 302
Of body of uterus, keratinising, 393
Metastasis by inoculation after operations for, 478
Of urethra in the female, primary, 581
Caruncles of female urethra, so-called, 487
Castration, sarcomatous growth in necrotic fibroid 11 years after, 474

Cervix, forcible dilatation of, by Bossi's dilator, 160
Rapid dilatation of, 161
Carcinoma of, at term, 302
Cancer of, treatment by X-rays, 576
Cervix uteri, carcinoma of, and pregnancy, 18
Early cancer of, 193
Phimosis of, 364
Primary tuberculosis of, 537
Child, congenital contraction of large intestine in a new-born, 273
Strangulated umbilical hernia in a new-born, 274
Justifiability of perforation of the living, 466
Case of purulent meningitis in a new-born, 470
Child-birth in a patient with advanced locomotor ataxy, 54
Children, ophthalmia of newly-born, 167
Cholecystotomy, performed some hours after delivery, 75
Chorea of pregnancy, 350, 540
Chorio-epithelioma, remote from the implantation area of the primary ovum, 66
Of the vagina, primary, 282
Rare atypical case of, with unusual result, 571.
Chorioma, report of a case of, 365
Cœliotomy for adnexal disease, propriety of conservative procedures in abdominal, 87.
Colporrhaphy and myorrhaphy of the levatores ani, 366
Contraction, congenital, of the whole of the large intestine in a new-born child, 273.
Cord, two cases of rupture of, 353
Corpus luteum, function of the, 459
Corpuscles, white blood, in pregnancy, labour, and puerperium, 158
Curettage in the treatment of acute puerperal infection, 132
Curette and curettage, in gynæcological and obstetrical practice, 178
Cyst, echinococcus (hydatid), in retro-cervical connective tissue, 68
Ovarian, associated with metrostaxis and retro-uterine hæmorrhage, 193
Vaginal, removed during puerperium, 486
Cystadenoma, papilliferous, removed from abdominal wall, 192
Cysts, on the formation of, 72
Bilateral papillomatous ovarian, 91
In inguinal canal, 297
Of right ovary, 298
Ovarian dermoid, 368

Deciduoma malignum after the menopause, 215
Delivery, cholecystotomy performed some hours after, 75
Injury to child's head during, 530
Dermoid in the Fallopian tube, 70
Depressions, cranial, 97
Diplococcus pneumoniæ, primary infection of puerperal uterus by, 450
Diseases of the female organs, examination of the blood as a means of diagnosis in certain, 379
Dysmenorrhœa, a contribution to the natural history of, 1, 83

Echinococcus (hydatid) cyst in retro-cervical connective tissue, 68
